II. Camp Operation

Our goal is to create a positive attitude among all campers to enhance the working of God's Word and the Holy Spirit in their hearts. The schedule is varied with times of choice, restful breaks, loud and quiet times, rugged and easy events. Our goal, however, is to make the highlight of camp the spiritual times.

Each leader will be supplied with a daily schedule/daily devotional at check-In and kept informed during the morning counselor meetings.

A. Procedures/Rules

Fort Bluff Camp is a Christian camp. The standards we maintain apply to every camper. Any camper who is not cooperative is subject to dismissal at his own expense.

It is the youth leader's responsibility to communicate our rules, dress code, and standards of conduct clearly before coming to Fort Bluff Camp.

Dress Code – The following paragraphs state the acceptable dress code for Fort Bluff Camp. We have many churches whose dress codes differ from each other; however, youth leaders handle the situation very well by explaining to their young people that sometimes it is necessary to practice flexibility. Since our camps are only a week, the change should not be a difficult one.

Guys – Please be modest at all times. No cut-off t-shirts or tight clothing. Evening Chapel Services: church or school attire.

Gals – Please be modest at all times. No see-through, low-cut, or tight clothing. Evening Chapel Services: church or school attire.

No clothing advertising questionable products or people.

C. Items to Leave at Home

No gaming devices, iPods, computers or other technology - if these items are brought by a camper the youth leader will be responsible to collect them and lock them in their vehicle. Camp is a great opportunity for God to have the undivided attention of our young people. Limit the usage of cell phones among your youth. Getting unplugged is healthy.

No contraband (knives, firearms, fireworks, etc)

III. Competition

Some competitive events are planned each week for both teen and junior camps. Team and individual events are planned. Awards will be presented to the winners Thursday night or Friday morning.

Competition is not required of either individuals or groups. The following events listed provide enough information to help your campers prepare. Special times will be set aside each day for competitive events, entered by choice only.

IV. Closing Notes

Our camp staff will partner with you to minister to and with your young people throughout the week.

Fort Bluff Camp prefers that as many leaders as possible come with your campers, at least one leader for every ten campers. Men leaders will stay with the boys each night, and the ladies will stay with the girls. Junior campers must be with you or our staff at a planned activity at all times.

We will have special sessions for just the youth leaders as well as breakout sessions for teen campers. These sessions will cover topics relevant to today's Christian young people.

Please be sure to check the health status of your campers before coming. Campers should not attend who have fevers or lice.

Thank you for coming! We believe this is going to be a great week at Fort Bluff Camp.
