

Now that you're registered, here are a few details!!

Arrival - Registration is on Friday at 5 pm at the Brown Deer Lodge Lobby. Supper is at 6 pm.

What to Bring - The following list is a suggestion. This is a casual retreat, so bring comfortable shoes and a light jacket. We're typically 5 to 10 degrees cooler than what the Chattanooga weather says.

- Personal toiletries
- Alarm clock
- Bible, notebook & pen
- Several changes of clothing (no laundry services available)
- Closed toe shoes
- Jacket, coat, or hoodie (temperatures can drop at the Bluff)

Accommodations Lakehaven Cabin guests - linens, towels, and washcloths are provided. Each cabin has a fully equipped kitchen, one bath, one bedroom with queen-sized bed, and one loft bedroom with two full-sized beds.

Brown Deer Lodge guests - linens only are provided for the two queen-sized bed in each room; there are also seven twin-sized bunk-beds in each room. So, if there is a group of girlfriends wanting to stay together in one room, the ones sleeping in the twin-sized beds will need to bring linens and pillows. Towels and washcloths are not provided. All housing is on a first pay-first accommodated basis. Minimum of three occupants per Lakehaven Cabin. We are a tobacco-, pet-, and alcohol-free campus. We are unable to accommodate young children and babies.

Departure - Check-out is Saturday immediately following lunch. The retreat ends at 4 pm.
